DETAILED ACTION

1. The Examiner has carefully considered Applicants' remarks filed on 9/22/2003.
2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
3. Rejections not maintained are withdrawn.

Claim Objections

4. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: the Examiner repeats (see Paper No. 6, page 2) that it is suggested that in Claim 1, in line 1, after "comprising" insert --an--.

Response to Amendment

5. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicants' admission in view of JP 2000-219799 (English Abstract and Machine Translation), substantially for the reasons set forth in section 3 of Paper No. 6, together with the following additional observations.

With respect to Applicants' response arguing that "the fact that the resin known does not render the present invention obvious. The Office Action provides no motivation for one skilled in the art to combine the references. Combining them as asserted in the Action is done only by means of hindsight" (Remarks, page 2, second paragraph), the Examiner repeats (see Paper No. 6, page 2) that Applicants admitted that it is known art that porous polytetrafluoroethylene films are used as substrates for prepreg products, and it is also noted that JP '799 expressly teaches that the flame-retarded epoxy resin is useful to make a printed wired board laminate [0001], which is believed to be laminated prepregs, as shown in the Example [0030]-[0032]. As such, clearly the admitted prior art and JP '799 are from the same field of endeavor, i.e., epoxy prepreg, and it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to combine the teachings. As to Applicants' argument that "combining them as asserted in the Action is done only by means of hindsight", it must be recognized that any judgment on obviousness is in a sense necessarily a reconstruction based upon hindsight reasoning. But so long as it takes into account only knowledge which was within the level of ordinary skill at the time the invention was made, and does not include knowledge gleaned only from the applicant's disclosure, such a reconstruction is proper. In re McLaughlin, 443 F.2d 1392; 170 USPQ 209 (CCPA 1971).

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of
